

Norfolk Ladies County Golf Association

Junior Girls' Winter Training 2024

Winter is a great time to sharpen up your skills and to get ready for the new season.

As part to the development of junior golf in Norfolk the below four days of training is being provided free of charge by the Norfolk Ladies' County Golf Association.

This is open to all girls who play golf in Norfolk and would like to improve.

It is expected that girls will attend at least three out of the four sessions and take part Norfolk Junior Girls competitions throughout the year.
